THE GAZETTE.

WIDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 28.

WHAT A BOY DOES -He comes out at the front door, bright-faced and happy. He comes out for no particular reason, save that he wants to be moving about. He is full of physical action, and he must get some of it out of him before bedtime or he wont be fit to sleep. He doesn't know this with his head, but his body knows it; for, after all, the body does a good deal of its own think ing, independently of what we call con-sciousness. He stands on the step and looks up and down the street. He doesn't know what he is looking for. Indeed he is not look ing for anything. He just looks with a sort of undefined hope that he will see something suggestive to him of what to do. He jumps down the steps and goes to the gate, hange on it a moment, makes a few sounds with his voice such as nobody but a boy can make, and nobody else would make if he could. They don't mean anything. He makes them because—well, because he is a boy. As if he had suddenly thought of something to do, he bangs the gate open and rushes down the middle of the street, yelling like a young Indian. But he has not suddenly thought of something to do. He has simply done that because he couldn't think of anything to do, and must do same-thing. Then be picks up a stone and fires it at a dog, and oringes and feels sorry if it hits the mark. He doesn't want to hurt the dog. He throws the stone because he and dog and the stone are there, and it is handy to do so. For a few seconds he stands and tooks up into a tree at-nothing Then he breaks into a run again, and suddenly sits down on the curbstone as if he had ac complished something and was content.

CORPORATION NOTICES.

LINAL NOTICE TO GAS DELINQUENTS.

In addition to the notices that have appeared in the daily papers during the past month calling gas consumers' attention to their unpaid bills, I have mailed them statements of their accounts, requesting a settlement in fall by June 1st next, which is the end of the fiscal year. I will be at the office of the City Gas Works every day from 9 to 4 o'clock (dinner hour included) to attend to this business. Having indulged many until further indulgence is out of the question, delinquents are politely notified that if their bills are not paid by June 5th I shall be compelled to turn off the gas and collect the money, according to law, in which case the gas will not be again turned on without a cash deposit. The bills must and will be collected. The law requires it and and will be collected. The law requires it and the Gas Works need it.
